"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredibility, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us . . ." (Charles Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities)

We are all individuals, different and yet so alike. All of us are involved in the process of life, reaching for a goal, no matter what it may be. Thus high school is a very important time in our lives. During these years we experience much — as individuals as well as a group.

While much of our high school education is based on successfully completing certain courses and developing certain skills, a deeper and richer education lies within ourselves. We can benefit from the knowledge and influence of others. They give us the headstart that we need. But as we look for personal independence, we realize that learning comes through our own endeavors and that the ultimate decision must be our own.

On the other hand, we must learn to work together. Sometimes a group can achieve bigger and better results. By being a member of a large unit, we have the right to express our opinions. When we share and exchange our ideas, we help to build these better results. Through our activities with others, we learn to be considerate and tolerant of those around us. Respecting other people's ideas will gain respect for our own. These present relationships will be most beneficial to our future and more lasting relationships.

Through these experiences, we learn to take the bad with the good — looking for a victory but coming home with a loss, wanting an A but getting the C, trying out for majorette every year but never making it, running for an office and losing. These can all be big disappointments. But somehow we learn to ride above our defeats. We congratulate the winners and try to succeed all over again.

Sometimes we give something our best try and still fail. Shooting at the wrong basket can be very embarrassing. It is easy to get discouraged when you study all night for a test only to find that you studied the wrong chapter. Taking the car for the first time and smashing into the garage door can bring on feelings of failure. Developing stage fright on the night of the play or pulling a muscle while trying out for cheerleader are bitter disappointments. At first we may hang our heads with shame and failure, but as the first pangs of disappointment vanish, we get up and strive to do new things.

As a result of these experiences, we go through many changes in our personalities and our values. We are not aware of such gradual changes until we note something different in our behavior. Yet, we hope they will help us develop into better human beings.

Each of us must go through this process of life at his own rate. Although we will spend most of our lives learning to put things in the proper perspectives, most of this struggle for maturity is fought during the high school years.

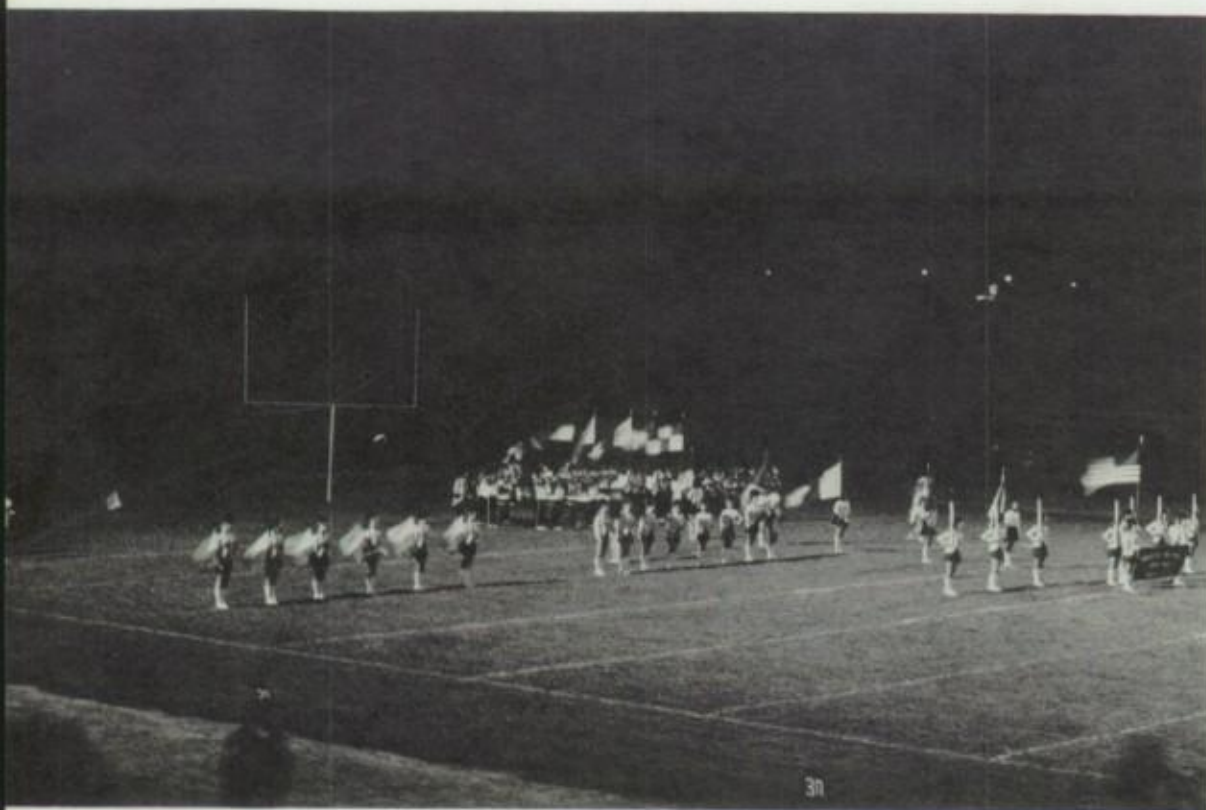

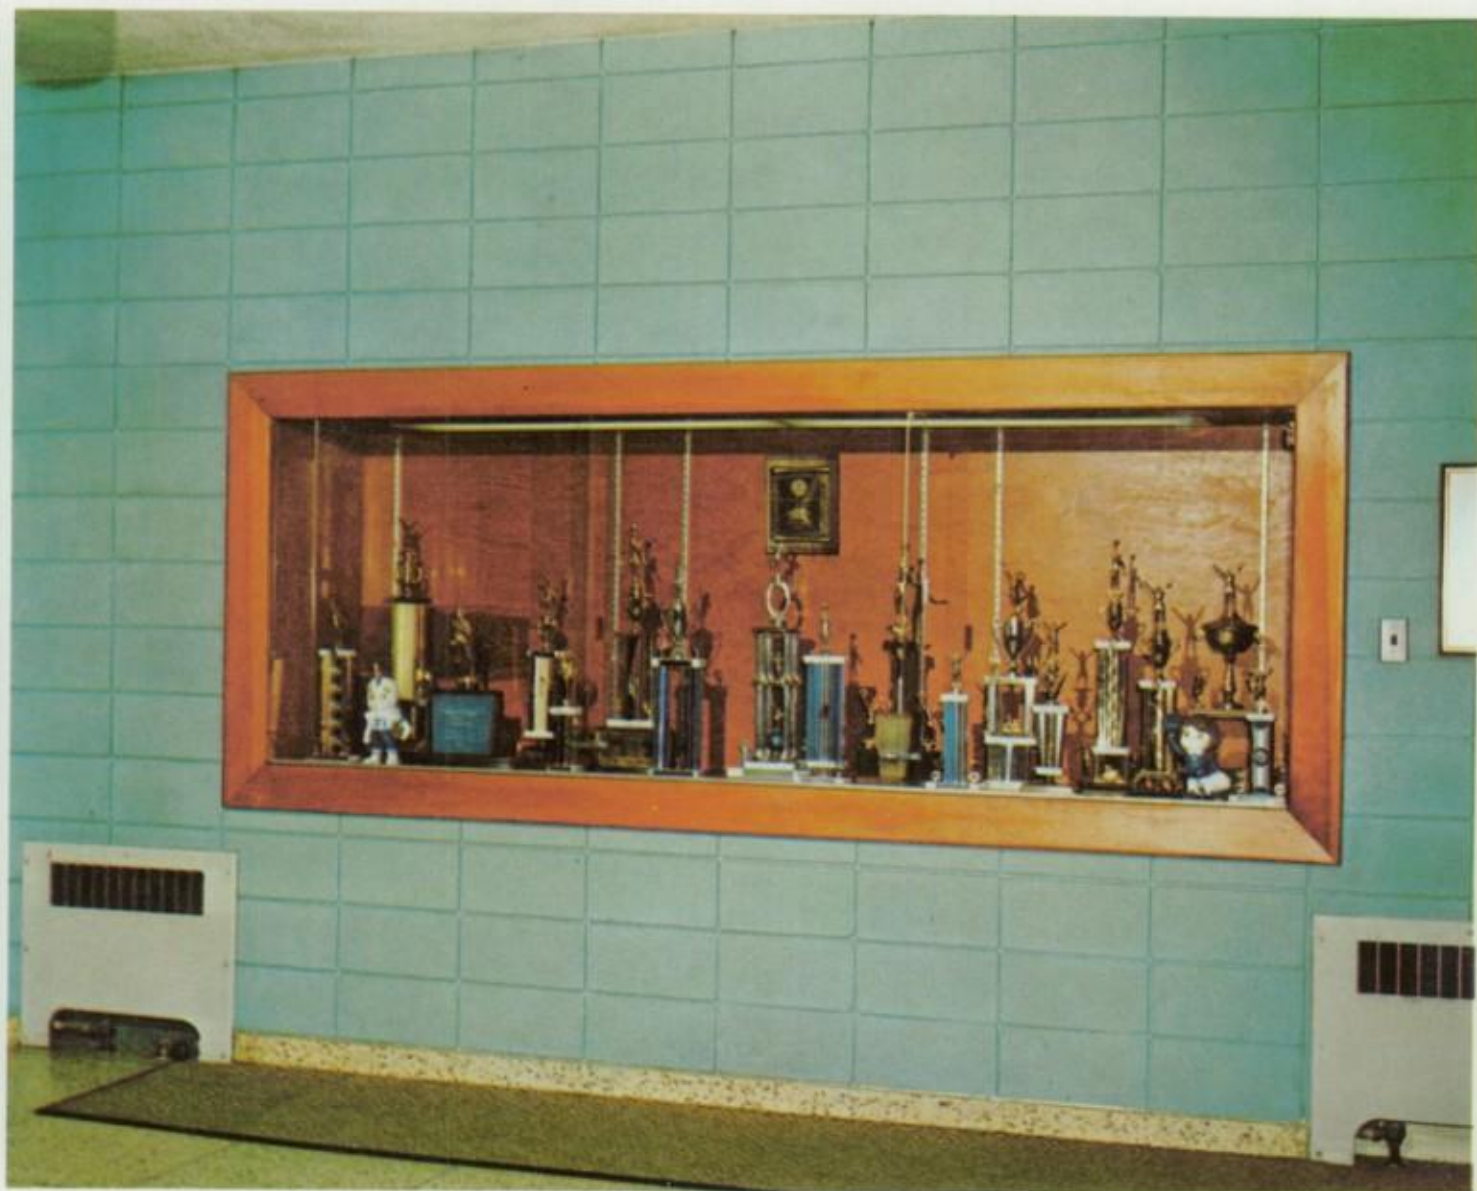

And when we look back on these years, we will remember it as the best of times.

Another school year is about to close for seniors. Many events have led up to these closing moments. As that final day approaches, one can reminisce about times spent within these walls. We entered these doors as lost, frightened children. As we grew accustomed to our new environment, we began thinking we could conquer anything which confronted us. Together we sat through science lectures, history films, and never ending English classes. Together we strove to make our school number one. There were the good times; and, of course, there were the bad times. But we faced them together. Together, we could conquer anything!

It is surprising what school can do to a person. It can make them laugh; it can make them cry. It can make friends out of enemies. It can make one voice represent many voices. But the most important thing school does is to mold each of us into a unique person. We are separate individuals who can think and act for ourselves. After six years within these walls of security, we are now, supposedly, mature and ready to face the world.

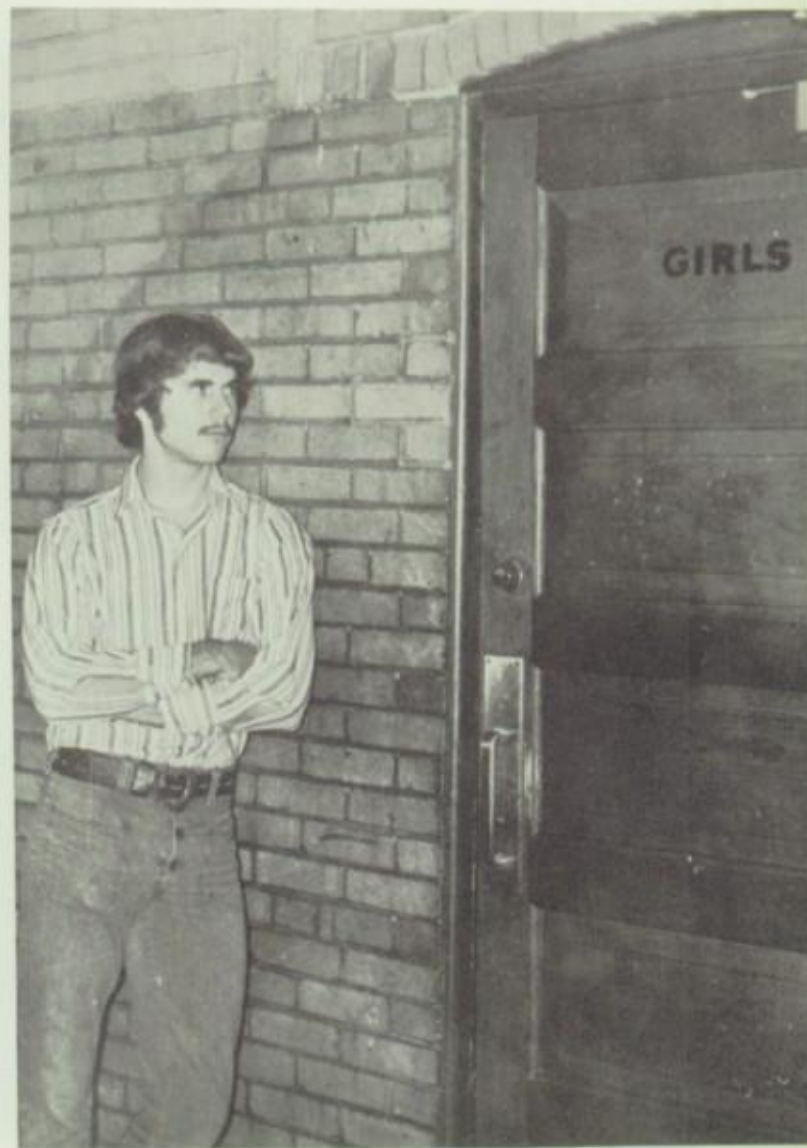

It is a big step out into that world, for it now is a world of uncertainties. Each of us will have to take that step alone. For seniors, the day to take that step is very near. The underclassmen will find their turn coming soon enough.

So before we say our good-byes to each other and to this school, remember: "There is nothing I can give you which you have not; but here is much, very much, that while I cannot give it, you can take. No heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in today. Take Heaven! No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present instant. Take Peace!

And so at this time, I greet you. Not quite as the world sends greetings, but with profound esteem and with the prayer that for you, now and forever, the day breaks and the shadows flee away." Fra Giovanni

Good-bye my friends. I leave you now.

Carl R. Bruno-Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of '74:

You have reached a milestone in your young lives and it is with a great deal of pleasure that I extend to each of you on behalf of the Board of Education, faculty and administration, our sincere congratulations.

Although the society you are about to enter is filled with complex problems which at times appear to be unsurmountable, it is also filled with many golden opportunities for those of you willing to accept the challenge. Hopefully, you will chart your future with careful, serious thought. If the world you are now entering is to become a better place in which to live and work for you and generations to follow, you need to get involved early in life in helping to find solutions to these knotty problems.

You have achieved this important goal through the help and guidance of your parents, teachers, friends and other interested, concerned adults. Let them know you appreciate what they have done for you.

In parting, I wish to remind you that we stand ready to assist you at any time, even long after you have departed from WAHS.

Good-bye, good luck and God bless you.

Frank P. Alcamo-High School Principal

The term principal can be very misleading. Upon hearing it, our first thought is often of discipline. Little do we know the many minute details involved in education with which our principal has to deal. All of this plus a special difference can be found in Mr. Frank P. Alcamo. That difference is that he is also an advisor and a friend we can trust.

His job is a challenging one; both varied and complex. A qualified administrator, Mr. Alcamo, through his years of service, has been willing to meet the demands of his job. In doing this job Mr. Alcamo has helped the high standards of education and integrity, both integral parts of Windber Area High School.

Thus Mr. Alcamo is highly respected not only by the faculty, but also by the student body of W.A.H.S. Student activities and achievements are a concern and a joy for Mr. Alcamo. He is involved directly with us the students.

James J. Lidonnice-Junior High Principal

The functions of the Junior High Principal are very vital ones. Performing these functions at Windber is Mr. James J. Lidonnice. Serving in his second year, he has shown that he is talented and experienced enough not only to carry out his own duties but also to handle the problems of the entire school when Mr. Alcamo is not present.

Having previously served as a teacher at Windber Area, Mr. Lidonnice has had first hand experience of the problems of both the faculty and student body. Thus he helps the school run smoothly and without error. The faculty and student body greatly appreciate his valuable assistance.

Ann Reagan-Administrative Assistant

A face we always see in the High School Office is that of Mrs. Ann Reagan, Administrative Assistant. Although her duties vary as each day presents new problems, Mrs. Reagan is a person the student body can count on; knowing she will perform her utmost faithfully.

Few people realize all the work and planning it takes to put a yearbook together. Careful planning, layouts, time, patience and, of course, pictures, are essential. The Stylus Editorial Staff has been working hard this year to put this book together. They have done their best and hope you are pleased.

Collecting money, looking for patrons, getting subscriptions, going for ads, working out assessments and the final distribution of yearbooks, are just a few of the jobs of the Stylus Business Staff. A yearbook costs a lot. In order to defray costs and keep the price of the book at the present level, patrons have to be found and ads have to be sold. Along with the Editorial Staff, the Business Staff hopes their work is appreciated.

We're an All-American Band! Yes, we are. Our band began its competitive year amid football shows, by capturing 1st place at the UPJ Homecoming parade in October. Under the direction of Mr. Mike Clawson, the band marched on to a 2nd place rating in the "Cavalcade of Bands" in Martinsburg. Aside from district and stage bands, a brass chorale was organized. The colorguard and majorettes also went competitive by participating in several contests.

Senior High Chorus

Sing-out united! This is one way to describe the chorus. Everyone has to pitch in for a program to be a hit. The chorus presented a cantata, "A Christmas Happening," and several familiar carols to celebrate the Christmas season. The chorus has also traveled to other schools, exchanging their talents. Another new addition is the use of guitar and drum accompaniment.

Practice, yelling, practice, splits, practice, megaphones, and more practice. This is the life of a cheerleader. They cheer for football, girl's and boy's basketball games, pep rallies, parades and tournaments. This year Mrs. Maloy served as the varsity cheering advisor and Miss Vespa was the Jr. High advisor. Both Jr. High and Sr. High squads returned home from the Jaffa Mosque contest, October 24, with trophies. The varsity squad captured 3rd place and the Jr. High squad tied for 1st. The varsity cheerleaders also hosted the War Memorial Contest. After a year of hard work, the cheerleaders deserve a "cheer" and a thank-you.

Homecoming

October 18-20

"A Star-Spangled Victory" described this year's Homecoming as our mighty Ramblers defeated Westmont on October 20, by a score of 40-14. Another Star-Spangled event took place on October 18 when the out house was burned. This was the official beginning for Homecoming weekend. Friday, October 19 was a Star-Spangled day for Diane Walko as she was crowned the 3rd Annual Homecoming Queen, at a pep rally Friday. Also crowned at the pep rally, in a skit, was Carmelita Defeets (alias Mark Donato).

After the game everyone joined in celebrating the Star-Spangled Victory, in the gym. The "Violations" played for the Homecoming Dance while the alumni gathered in the cafeteria for refreshments. Red, White and Blue — what a Star-Spangled weekend!

"A Year to Remember"

Thirteen couples waited anxiously to hear the names which were written on that special paper. Silence filled the gym on November 20, as Kris Campitelli and Bob Mucciola were announced VW Queen and King. At that moment, excitement and applause replaced the silence. This dance was more than simply honoring the senior band members, cheerleaders and football players. We were celebrating our 10-0 season and our new title as Mountain Conference Champs. It was certainly "A year to remember."

Junior Senior Prom 1973

It was raining, cool and windy. Girls in gowns and guys dressed in tuxedos hurried from cars to the building for shelter. Such was the picture on May 4, 1973, The Junior-Senior Prom was held at North Fork Country Club that night. Despite the weather, the 76 couples seemed to enjoy themselves.

The theme was "Pieces of April, It's a morning in May." The Lou Stein Trio provided the entertainment for the evening.

A post-prom, sponsored by the United Clergy of Windber, was held after the prom at the high school. Entertainment included dancing, basketball, volleyball, a movie and refreshments.

Mt. Conference Champs 10-0

Coach Joe Flori led his 1973 Windber Ramblers to the Mountain Conference Championship and the school's first undefeated-untied season since 1943. The team ended its season with a 10-0 record and scored a total of 268 points while allowing the opposition to score only 53.

On August 22, 1973, the headline in the Johnstown Tribune-Democrat read, "Windber Short on Veterans In Rebuilding Grid Machine." It was true that Mr. Flori had only six returning lettermen in Ralph DeMarco, Mark Elias, Jeff Slatcoff, Mike Weyant, Kevin Berkey and Bob Mucciola, but this nucleus along with the rest of the team provided for one of the most exciting football seasons ever.

As the team left their "home away from home", Camp Hamilton, after two long weeks of hard practice, few people felt that this team could better the previous years record of 10-1. In the weeks ahead, these same people would slowly, but surely become believers.

It all began as the Ramblers traveled to Mansion Park in Altoona where they met their first opponents, the Bishop Guilfoyle Marauders. As Windber took the field in their new blue and white game uniforms, many people were afraid that the season would be off to a bad start. The defense held B.G. scoreless, and 19 points on the part of the offense gave the Ramblers their first victory of the fresh season.

In the home opener, the Florimen faced the Northern Cambria Colts. A 34-0 halftime lead resulted in most of the starters viewing the last two periods from the bench as the final score 40-0 was shown on the board.

One of Windber's greatest rivalries was next on the schedule. A rival game always results in high tensions and boiling tempers. The game with Richland was no exception. Both teams were fired up, but Windber managed to take a 13-0 lead at the half. In the third period the Rams threatened as they scored and trailed by only 7. Alex Lapinsky then put on a performance as he intercepted two passes at his defensive end position and returned them for touchdowns. The final score was 33-6.

At Punxsutawney the following week, the fog was so thick that the scoreboard was out of view. It took a second half comeback and a tremendous debut by Dave Pruchnic for Windber to rack up victory number four with a 27-12 win over the Chucks.

"Payday" number five came in the game against the Somerset Golden Eagles. For the third time in the first five games, the Rambler defense held the opponents scoreless and just as in the season opener, Windber found a 19-0 victory.

It was October 12, and all roads led to Davidsville, where the Ramblers would meet the Conemaugh Indians. It was this game, just one year earlier, that Windber was denied an undefeated season. This year they were not to be denied.

The standing-room-only crowd went wild as both teams were down close to the goal line in the first half, but failed to score. The defensive battle continued with only 8:10 left in the game, when Dave Oatman scored on third down. From that point the district's number one defense went to work as Mark Elias and George Soika dumped the Indian's quarterback in the end zone for a safety. The final score was 8-0 and the Ramblers had overcome a major obstacle.

In their next game, Windber seemed as if they were in for a surprise. Westmont held them to only 6 points in the first half, but the fired up Ramblers came out in the second half to score 34 points and set the final score at 40-14.

Varsity Coaches

Pat Pollino, Tim Voytko, Joe Flori, Joe Hancharick

Concern filled the air as the Ramblers prepared to take on Bishop McCort. People were saying that Windber played an easy schedule and that the bigger McCort team would bump them off.

Saturday night arrived and along with it came victory number eight for the Florimen. The Ramblers led by a 21-7 score at halftime and the defense, led by Mark Petrilla, shut out the Crushers in the final two stanzas.

Forest Hills would have been little to worry about if the Ramblers had not been looking ahead to the final game of the season against undefeated Central Cambria. As it was, the Ramblers managed to pull out victory number nine by downing the Rangers 28-0.

The snow was falling as the Windber Ramblers arrived at the high school to get ready for the battle of the undefeated. No one was sure if the game would even be played as the snow continued falling and the roads became hazardous. After a long and tiresome bus ride, the team finally arrived in Ebensburg, and as they trotted across the "white" field they were cheered by the loyal Rambler fans.

An outstanding offensive game took place despite the miserable weather conditions. Just before the half and as Windber trailed by a score of 14-7, Kevin Berkey engineered an 80-yard drive that put the Ramblers ahead 16-14 at the half.

Varsity Managers

Bill Barzensky, Joe France, Den DiPaola, Mark Cocco

A very confident Rambler team emerged from the locker room. Windber's defense put on one of their best performances of the year as they held Central Cambria to only one first down in the final two periods, and it came by way of a penalty. As the defense stopped the Devils "cold", the offensive line, led by Jim Hudack, was opening holes and the Rambler backs managed to score three more touchdowns.

As the final gun sounded, the 1973 football season came to an end, but history had been recorded and there was going to be a great celebration in Windber that night and in the days following.

ABOUT THE EMBLEM ON PAGE 1:

The story behind the emblem is one of both the high school and the community. Many aspects of the high school itself are pictured in the emblem. Courses of study, electives, activities, and sports, are all important parts of Windber Area High School's program. Students have a wide variety of subjects and activities — which they may take or join. The high school itself consists of 42 classrooms; two art rooms; a home economics suite; wood, metal, and junior wood shops; a band room; a chorus room; an auditorium; a cafeteria; a gymnasium; a library; a business machines room; a maintenance shop; an athletics area; a garage; administrative suites; guidance offices; a health suite; and a drafting room.

Of course, a school is an important part of the community. The communities of this school district play a major role and are closely connected with the school. Thus, aspects of the community itself are depicted in the emblem. Five links forming one chain around the flagpole are representative of the five areas that join together to form the Windber Area School District. These are Ogle Township, Paint Borough, Paint Township, Scalp Level Borough, and Windber. Others are the beautiful scenery of the area; the housing project; trucking, mining, and the manufacturing industries; the hospital; and the nearby airport. Flying proudly over all can be seen the United States flag symbolizing a community and school under the laws of our great nation. This is the story the emblem tells — one we may be very proud of.

We, the 1974 Editorial & Business Staff of the Stylus, wish the best of luck to the graduating Seniors and to the underclassmen who will take our place.
